

Perspectives for researchers: Turning an idea into a project and career opportunity

Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law

Freiburg, 13 July 2017

Conference room
Fürstenbergstr. 19

09.00 - 16.00

Dr. Carolin Hillemanns (Coordinator of IMPRS-REMEP)
Prof. Dr. Dietrich Oberwittler (Senior Researcher at the MPI's Dep. of Criminology)
Patrice Wegener (Max Planck EU Regional Office Baden-Württemberg)

9:00 Welcome and Introduction

9:15 Grant writing as a challenge: a personal perspective

[Prof. Dr. Dietrich Oberwittler]

- How to develop an idea and turn it into a research programme
- Essentials of scientific writing, 'Dos and Don'ts'
- Grant writing as an opportunity for developing 'independence'

10:15 Project funding for career development

[Patrice Wegener]

- The "funding landscape" and fellowship/grant options (selection)
- Grant basics: self-assessment, host institution, collaboration, ethics, open science

Incl. coffee/tea break

12:00 REMEP Alumni career paths - choices made

[Dr. Carolin Hillemanns]

12:30 Lunch break

13:15 Project proposal simulation game based on a European Grant/Fellowship application (group à 8-14 persons)

Evaluation and discussion, feedback and how to apply these sim game insights to other fellowships/grants

16.00 End

Note: Participants of project simulation, please bring your laptops/tablets (if possible)